

MMT 114-1 Second Year Music Theory
Updated Assignments

Due Wednesday, December 3

27/106 #1, 27/109

Note: 27/106 #1 is a tough little cookie. Give yourself some time with it, to play it on the piano until it begins to clarify for you.

Extra Credit Assignment Due Monday, December 8

From the website: “Song Form Assignments” (in the “Three-Part Song Form” section.)
Download the PDF file, print page 1 of the file, and follow the instructions carefully.

If you perform at a “B” level or better, the extra credit works like this:

- 1) The grade on this assignment will replace the lowest grade you have in the gradebook — this is handy for those of you with some missing assignments.
- 2) If you don’t have low grades in the gradebook, then this will add %5 to your overall workbook average.

Due Monday, December 15

28/119, 29/131-132

Notes: 29/131: all pieces are to be considered as in minor unless otherwise indicated. Use an augmented sixth chord wherever appropriate, but please note that it isn’t always appropriate.

For Your Perusal

There is a set of notes called “Song Form Expansions” on the website; this consists of analyses of various scores which display unusual applications of song form. Worth going over if you’re interested in such things.
